

EPP WELCOMES OUTCOME OF G-20 MEETING AS THE RIGHT WAY TO DEAL WITH ECONOMIC CRISIS

02-04-2009

Today EPP President, Wilfried Martens, welcomed the outcome of the G-20 meeting in London and underlined that "strong cooperation between the main economies around the world is the right way to tackle the current economic crisis".

"The package of measures adopted today will be a fundamental step in order to strengthen the global economy and to stimulate employment and the economic growth", stated EPP President.

"It is a historic compromise taking into account the figures of the economic stimulus decided and the political agreement achieved by the leaders who were present in London. The outcome of today's meeting is in line with the priorities of the EPP, represented by several of our leaders -Nicolas Sarkozy, Angela Merkel, Silvio Berlusconi, Jan Peter Balkenende, Mirek Topolánek, Recep Tayyip Erdogan, and Jose Manuel Barroso- who attended the Summit", he concluded.

---

 Print