His center-right government is led by two EPP and EPP-ED Group parties ODS and KDU-CSL.

"This is great political victory for Prime Minister Topolánek because he managed to survive a very difficult period of political stalemate in his country. A politician with such perseverance is destined to succeed," stated Martens.

"Needless to say, Prime Minister Topolánek and his government can rely on the support and solidarity of the EPP family for the many challenges that lie ahead," the EPP President concluded.
