

DURAO BARROSO TO BE VOTED PRESIDENT OF THE COMMISSION

21-07-2004

On Thursday the Parliament, which is sitting for the first time this week since the elections in June, is expected to approve the nomination of Jos  Manuel Durao Barroso, the former prime minister of Portugal, as president of the European Commission.

The EPP expects that the candidate designate, Jos  Manuel Barroso, will now receive also a majority in Parliament.
